

With absolutely perfect golfing weather, the inaugural edition of the Y Golf Classic was a resounding success. A sold-out tournament of 144 golfers had a great day of golf on the pristine fairways and greens at The Royal Ottawa Golf Club on Monday, September 20.

With the support of sponsors, donors and volunteers, a net amount of $107,675 was raised for the National Capital Region YMCA-YWCA's Strengthening the Heart of our Community Capital Campaign. The Campaign is to revamp the Metro Central branch on Argyle Avenue; expand facilities in Orleans; redevelop the Bonnenfant Y Outdoor Centre; and introduce new programs and services to help serve an anticipated 150,000 people annually.

The Y sincerely thanks Co-Chairs Doug Feasby and Joanne Livingston, and the Organizing Committee (Jeff Clarke, Jeremy Farr, Ted Fobert, Bruce Hillary, Brian Scott, Jim Taggart, Keith Taggart) for their great leadership; all the Tournament day volunteers for their superb execution of the event; the business and community leaders of the National Capital Region for their unwavering support.

A special thanks to Richard Signoretti and the ROGC, their Board and their members for donating the use of the golf course, and to Paul Carrothers, Linda Dewar, Joyel Singfield, and all the clubhouse, pro shop and greens staff for the great job they all did on our behalf.

The date for next year's Tournament at the ROGC will be confirmed later this year, so stay tuned.
